Entering Our Sixth Year ... of Actual Reporting

A MESSAGE FROM THE GOC

Greetings and congratulations to "The Griesbach Bugle" on the occasion of its 6th Anniversary. Service newspapers fill a necessary requirement in publicizing groups and events in Army communities in locations such as Canadian Army Europe, Camp Gagetown, Camp Petawawa, Camp Borden, Camp Shilo and Griesbach.

"The Griesbach Bugle" has always been read by servicemen and dependents with considerable interest, and the news items cover a wide range of activities of the Canadian Army, both local and national.

The planning and effort put forward by the editorial staff, unit reporters, and advertising staff, is appreciated and certainly reflects complete co-operation which has spelled success for the past six years. Once again congratulations and my sincere best wishes for continued success.

J. M. Rockingham

On the occasion of the 6th Birthday of the Griesbach Bugle, I would like to offer my congratulations for the work that has been accomplished for the past six years and my good wishes for the future.

The Griesbach Bugle performs a much-needed function in the Garrison providing a means by which the residents of the PMQ Area are kept advised of community activities as well as providing a record of local military activities.

Keep up the good work.

Yours truly,

E. Meach

With this edition, The Griesbach Bugle celebrates its sixth birthday. As a community paper, the purpose of the Bugle is to bring you, the reader, news of entertainment and activities and a forecast of events that are of interest to the majority of the residents of Griesbach.

The success of the paper is evidenced in the growth from a mimeographed news sheet to the current multipage paper distributed free to all residents of Griesbach. It is now supported by advertisements from local establishments and neighborhood merchants and when needed by the community association. The news comes from organizations and units within the camp, and the staff is entirely voluntary. This is your newspaper, and is well worthy of the community support.

Your Griesbach Council takes this opportunity of thanking the staff of the Bugle for their endeavors and accomplishments of the past six years, and best wishes for continued success in the future.

Griesbach Community Library

A good and well-supported library service is the sign of a progressive, intelligent community. We are proud of the Griesbach Community Library which supplies diversified books for educational needs and reading enjoyment. Your library contains books, periodicals and educational material, as in all progressive libraries, to reach every person on every level, regardless of social, economical, cultural, or age levels.

Parents and teachers should encourage boys and girls to read and develop their own individual interests and hobbies. In addition, the use of the library reference service by students is increased as they find more material in writing essays for their school projects.

Those who have stopped school and realize there is a need to supplement their knowledge, use the library to gain further material and education.

The use of your community library is strictly voluntary but it serves at the same time as the best measure of the ambitions, the cultural and intellectual interests, the desire for more understanding knowledge on the part of the entire community, both old and young.

We pass a bouquet to all the volunteer ladies who spend many hours each month in the service of your Griesbach Community Library.

Plan now to support your library more often, and especially pay a visit to the library during Canadian Library Week, April 4 to 11, 1964.

We wish to acknowledge an interesting article, which appears elsewhere in these columns, written for Canadian Library Week by Major J. E. Hodge, CD, Chief Librarian of the Griesbach Library.

National Wildlife Week

The Western Command Fish and Game Association has been active for many years at Griesbach and boasts with pride, a successful year round operation. To the ardent fisherman, hunter, trap shooter and sportsman, it may be well worth your while to investigate the many benefits of being a member of this association.

The President, Capt. W. R. Parker, C.D., has contributed an interesting article, which is printed in this issue of The Bugle, to observe National Wildlife Week, April 5 - 11, 1964.

Patronize Our Advertisers

The Griesbach Bugle is produced on a non-profit basis for the sole purpose of informing the residents of Griesbach and Namao, news of particularly local interest and keeping before them, through advertisements, the names of reputable business firms whose services are most likely to be required.

Now the Griesbach Bugle has reached another milestone as it celebrates its sixth birthday, and we take this opportunity to express our sincere appreciation for the support received from our advertisers, without which the Bugle would not exist. May we continue to enjoy your trust and assistance. To our readers we say, "Patronize our advertisers, and let them know you saw it in the Bugle".

Letters to the Editor

Sir:

On the occasion of your Paper's Sixth Anniversary, the Better Business Bureau of Edmonton wish to take the opportunity to extend to the Editor and Staff our heartiest congratulations.

We appreciate the co-operation of your Bugle in giving space to some of the releases from this office, designed for public education in wise buymanship.

I have had the pleasure of meeting Mr. H. C. Chadderton, Manager of the Canadian Army Financial Welfare program, and would like to congratulate him personally on his column, "MYRT SEZ".

This, in its humorous way, does a great deal, we feel, to publicize, — in a way that can be understood by all readers — the pitfalls that can be encountered by the greedy, the gullible or the unwary, in everyday business transactions.

Publicity for Your Group

Should your group get more attention from The Bugle? How often this statement is made to the editorial staff. But, photos, announcements, and stories, can all be published, and there is no magic to it. All you have to do is contact your unit news reporter or the Bugle editorial staff.

Get to know your news reporter and editorial staff. The Bugle is your best means for communicating with your community. However, since the editor and staff cannot possibly know of every event taking place, it is your responsibility to contact them for publicity. You will find them more than willing to assist.

Give the editor a memo card. On it list your and the president's name, address, and phone number; and the correct name of your organization. Include a brief outline of its interests.

Find the length of copy (story) that can be used, how far in advance of publication date the story is required, and get the story in on time. Don't forget to have it typed and double-spaced.

Every editor must know WHO, WHAT, WHEN (give day, date, and time), WHERE, and the WHY of a story. He also has to know the full name of each person mentioned. Above all, he has to know that each of your facts is accurate.

In the upper left-hand corner of your copy, add your name, address, and phone number.

When photos are included with your story, never send amateur blurred prints. Try for action pictures. Don't pose eight people staring nervously at the camera; with the caption that they are the bake-sale committee. Photos of individuals are usually 2 x 2 inches, groups are 4 x 4 inches, printed on glossy paper. Include the WHAT, WHERE, HOW and WHO listed from left to right as they appear in the print.

The more direct and vital interest your group takes in community affairs, and the more accurately and dramatically you present this interest to your editor, the better the result will be.

Condensed from "The Camp Borden Citizen."

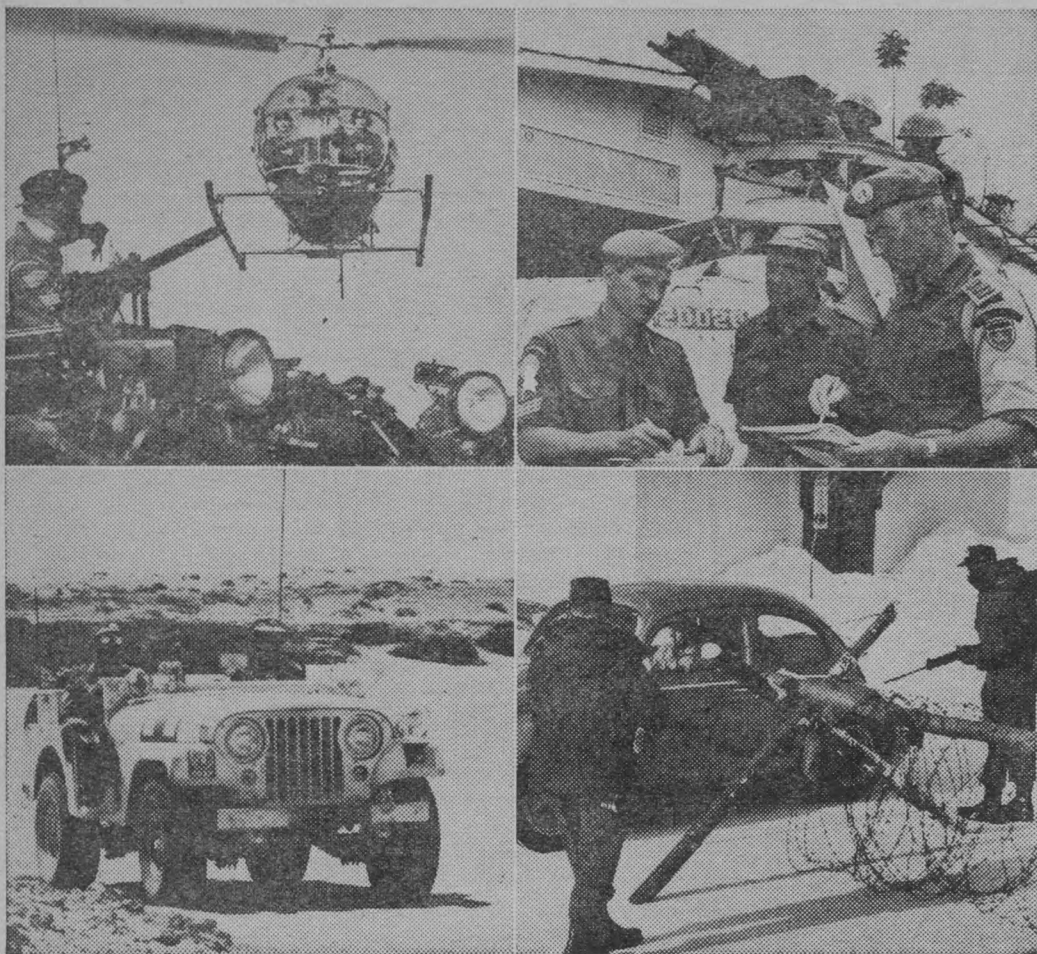

It is hoped that your publication will meet with every success in the future, and that "Myrt" will continue to enlighten her friends and your readers.

CANADA'S PEACEKEEPERS

The despatch of troops to Cyprus marked the fourth major peacekeeping task for the Canadian Army. When the move is completed, more than 8,000 officers and men will be on overseas duty in a score of countries. The largest group, 6,000 men, serve with NATO in Germany (top left); about 250 are assigned to the UN Congo force (top right); and about 950 are on UN duties in the Middle East (bottom left). The 1st Battalion Royal 22e Regiment (bottom right), who have been training as Canada's standby battalion for three years, will be the major unit in the 1,100-man Canadian contingent in Cyprus. Other Canadians serve in such areas as Indochina and Kashmir. In the past 12 years, more than 50,000 soldiers have been on peace tasks abroad, and almost 31,000 others took part in the Korean War.

ACCIDENTS DECLINE

There was a general decrease in Army vehicle accidents in 1963, Army Headquarters announced today. Driving a total of more than 50 million miles in Canada and Europe — 200,000 more than in 1962 — Army drivers had 1,441 accidents compared to 1,511 the previous year. The accident rate for 1963 was 2.46 per 100,000 miles against 2.59 in 1962.

The number of soldiers injured increased during the past year — 47 compared to 26 in 1962. Deaths, however, decreased from 12 to eight.

Soldiers also had fewer accidents causing injuries driving their private cars than previously. Reported casualties totalled 115, including 32 fatalities, 26 serious injuries and 57 slight injuries.

In 1962, 43 soldiers died in private auto accidents, 29 were seriously injured and 73 slightly injured. No record is kept of private car accidents where there is no injury.

The Army conducts year-round safe-driving campaigns for its soldiers driving both military and civilian vehicles.

RCASC AND RCME Storeman Clerk Functions Transferred to RCOC

A decision has been made by AHQ to transfer the storeman clerk functions to RCOC from RCASC and RCME units of the CA(R). The transfer is in keeping with the philosophy of each corps assuming for its functions within units of other corps.

Tradesmen concerned should benefit considerably as there will be opportunities for a wider variety of work and experience and for progression in rank.

RCASC and RCME storeman clerks who transfer will retain their seniority in present rank and trade qualifications. Senior NCOs and Cpls. of these corps qualified on Senior NCO courses will not be required to re-qualify. After transfer, personnel will be trained in a trade other than storeman clerk on a planned schedule to permit flexibility in future employment. They will be posted and promoted in accordance with existing RCOC career plans.

Lt.-Col. S. E. Hunter, Area Ordnance Officer, is arranging to hold an indoctrination program in the near future.

The Teen-Centre is now open between 3 and 9 p.m. daily. All teenagers in Griesbach are welcome to visit the building. The new facilities are still not perfect, and the Teen-Centre Committee would appreciate any suggestions for improvements from teenagers.

AWARDED QUEEN'S COMMENDATION

Fast action by an infantryman that saved a fellow soldier from serious injury and possibly death last June has been recognized officially with the award of the Queen's Commendation for brave conduct to Lance-Corporal Joseph G. Organ, 23, of La Tabatière, Que., a member of the 1st Battalion Queen's Own Rifles of Canada.

While throwing live grenades on the range at the Sennelager training area in Germany a soldier pulled the pin out of his grenade and, in bringing his hand back to throw, struck his leg causing it to slip out of his grasp. L/Cpl. Organ, NCO in charge of throwing bay, immediately shouted a warning and at the same time forced the soldier to the ground behind the adjacent protection-wall. Both soldiers reached cover before the grenade exploded.

The commendation reads, in part, "The quick thinking and decisive action of L/Cpl. Organ undoubtedly saved a fellow soldier from serious injury, if not death."

He returned to Canada last November with his unit which is now stationed in Victoria.

L/Cpl. Organ's father, Mr. J. H. Organ, lives in La Tabatière, Que. OCP who were accepted by the

HOW TO KEEP FROM GROWING OLD

Always race with locomotive to crossings.
Engineers like it; it breaks the monotony of their jobs.
Always pass the car ahead on curves or turns.
Don't use horn; it may unnervise the fellow and cause him to turn out too far.
Demand half the road — the middle half.
Insist on your rights.
Always speed; it shows them you are a man of pep even tho an amateur driver.
Never stop, look or listen at railroad crossings.
It consumes time.
Always lock your brakes when skidding.
It makes the job more artistic.
In sloppy weather drive close to pedestrians.
Dry cleaners appreciate this.
Never look around when you back up; there is never anything behind you.
Drive confidently just as tho there were not 18 million other cars in service.

CANADIAN LIBRARY WEEK

April 4th to 11th

"Reading is the Key to All Knowledge"

By Major J. E. Hodge, C.D., Chief Librarian Griesbach

Community Library

The modern library has evolved from a collection of clay tablets in Babylonia over 4,000 years ago. Ancient Egyptian temple libraries are known through Greek writers, and the first known public library was established in Greece in 330 B.C. to preserve accurate examples of the work of the great dramatists. The first Roman libraries were brought from Greece, Asia Minor and Syria as a result of conquests in the 1st and 2nd centuries B.C.; then, in the early Middle Ages, Roman libraries, being filled with pagan learning, were destroyed or neglected. Early Christian libraries were in monasteries, one of the most notable being in the Benedictine Monastery at Monte Casino, Italy, the scene of much bitter fighting during the Second World War. In the 15th century the Vatican Library, the oldest public library in Europe, was formed, and in 1475 its first librarian made a catalogue which contained 2,527 volumes. At about the same time many of the great European university libraries were opening. In North America the first library was opened in Boston in 1653, and in 1731 a circulating library which is still in existence was opened in Philadelphia on the initiative of Benjamin Franklin. Among the innovations of the late 1800s and early 1900s were free access to books by the public, branch libraries in many parts of cities and travelling libraries or bookmobiles to take books to readers.

There are few locations in Canada without immediate or periodical library facilities, and Canadians as a nation, have one of the highest per capita reading rates in the world, so much so that the supply of qualified librarians and trained library staff cannot meet the demand for new library facilities. This is healthy and encouraging and gives recognition to the true purpose of reading: the acquisition of knowledge. But whatever your reasons for reading, whatever your reading tastes, your local library is at your service — join it, use it frequently.

Mrs. H. Goodfellow, Badge Secretary for the Alexander Local Association, Girl Guides, presents a Gold Cord to Sandra Bourque while Joanne Rodgers and Mrs. C. J. Bourque look on. The presentation was made at No. 2 School on February 25, 1964.

Sandra is the daughter of Sgt. and Mrs. C. J. Bourque, 10419 - 152 Ave., Griesbach, and earning her Gold Cord was not just another easy task. To earn a Gold Cord a Guide must:

1. Be recommended by the Court of Honour of her Company and the Guider-In-Charge of the Guide Camp which she attended during the previous 18 months.
2. Be 15 years of age before her application is made, and have completed all but the "Be Prepared" Challenge three months prior to her 17th birthday.
3. Be a First Class Guide and hold the "Woodcraft" and "Little House" Emblems, and the Camper Badge.
4. Choose a country other than her own, and show in some practical way, approved by her Commissioner, her knowledge of and interest in it.

5. Prove herself capable of service to a group or individual, in home, school, church or local community. This service to be chosen by the Guide herself, and any project chosen must be sustained for at least four months.

6. Carry out three jobs arranged by her Commissioner and/or Local Association to prove her reliability, cheerfulness, and ability to work with and under others. The Commissioner will then forward the completed application form together with the required reports and recommendations to the Provincial Commissioner.

Finally the candidate will undertake a "Be Prepared" Challenge, arranged by the committee appointed by the province. This shall test whether she can apply the knowledge which she has acquired during her years in Guiding, has courtesy and common sense, and can act intelligently in different situations.

Congratulations Sandra, on a wonderful achievement.

NOTICE

The Guide and Brownie Mothers Local Association will hold their regular meetings every 3rd Tuesday of the month in the Staff Room at No. 1 School at 8:00 p.m. All mothers most welcome

17 R.O.D. NEWS BRIEFS

SPORTS

S/Sgt. Jimmy Grimstead skipped his team to the 17 ROD Curling Championship last month by defeating Cliff Snider in a closely fought and exciting battle right down to the last rock thrown.

The lead see-sawed back and forth from the 1st end and with the score 9-8 against his team in the 10th end, Jimmy executed a perfect take-out of a Snider rock for 2 points to win the Hunt Trans-port Trophy.

Congratulations to the Grimstead crew of Mrs. Ashton, Cpl. Melan-hon and Mrs. Storey and also to the Snider outfit for putting up such a game fight.

A roll-off for the 17 ROD bowl-ing championship will be held in early April and all those hopeful of receiving a miniature for the mantle piece, better start prac-tising.

DEPARTURES

Capt. D. D. Quiring, who has been with this depot since Nov-ember, 1962, and held appoint-ments in the Stores and Stock Control Wings, has been posted to 1 OFP in Calgary.

Captain Quiring was presented with his "Ram's Head" at a fare-well party held in the Officers' Mess on 20th of March.

Best wishes for continued suc-cess in what promises to be a rewarding career were extended to Capt. Quiring by the CO on behalf of depot personnel.

Pte. S. Takayata is headed for 4 Tpt Coy RCASC in Winnipeg, and L/Cpl. Anderson also has left for The RCME School for train-ing with that Corps to which he has transferred.

Mrs. Lil Huber, of the Local Pur-chase Section, has resigned from the Civil Service and has been replaced by Mrs. Yvonne Swanson.

NEW ARRIVALS

The CO extends a welcome to the following personnel who have been posted to the depot: Ptes. B. J. Lidemark, J. W. McClary, R. E. Osborne, R. G. Nickerson and C. H. Gregory.

PROMOTIONS

Congratulations to Ptes. R. P. Barrett and W. W. M. Rogers who were presented with L/Cpl. chev-rons by the CO since last edition of the Bugle.

AWARDS

S/Sgt. John Yaschuk was awar-ded the clasp to the Canadian Forces Decoration.

Mrs. Kitty Russell, who operates the snack bar, received the MLS 5 year pin awarded by that or-ganization for efficient service.

Mr. Harold Speer, former mem-ber of the Inspection Section, was the recipient of a Certificate of Service given for long and ex-emplary service.

Lt.-Col. Hunter made the pre-sentations at a depot meeting dur-ing the past month.

SOCIAL

A Depot dance was held in the PPCLI Lounge on February 28th and over 200 members and guests had a rollicking good time twist-ing and polka-lizing. If there had been a prize for the most vitality and exhibition of dancing ability, it would have been awarded to that dashing young officer Lieut. Stasuik who gave a performance of twisting that would be difficult to equal by anyone!

Larry Selland, Sgt. Robinson, Sgt. Foster and the rest of the committee were in for a vote of thanks for producing such an en-joyable evening... and such food... good quality and quantity.

COURSES

Cpl. W. L. Bonville successfully completed a Radiological Defence (Agricultural Officer's) Course held in February of this year and was presented with a Certificate by the CO.

Cpls. Gardiner, Laliberte and Pariseau have returned from the RCO School in Montreal, where they attended a Sr. NCO course, and are now ready for promo-tion to the exalted rank of Ser-geant. We sincerely hope that you won't have too long to wait, chaps!

Ptes. J. K. Burns and L. R. Jones qualified as Clerks Acctg Gp I at a recent course at the C rps School.

MISCELLANEOUS

A burst water main forced the Depot Controller and his staff to vacate their office and flee to temporary quarters in the Ware-house. It will be interesting to see their reactions after spending some time in the "Outer Limits".

A GOSSIP: One who always gives you the benefit of the dirt.

NUTS and BOLTS

Congratulations go to the lady curlers of 13 Company RCEME for showing their stuff by being in the runners-up rink in the "B" Event of the Griesbach Ladies' Curling Spiel.

Hank Cunningham, who played for the Southwood rink in the ACA Bonspiel, ended up in the furs of both the second and fifth events. Just goes to show!

We are glad to have Cpl. Tom Shaw back with us at 224 Workshop RCEME. Tom was with us a while back, got posted to Wainwright, found the town too tame, and so returned to us "city-slickers." Cpl. and Mrs. Tom Shaw and four children reside at 12071 94th Street.

After ten "strenuous" weeks at The RCEME School on a Senior NCO's course, Cpl. Oliver Hisecock returned to 224 Workshop RCEME on Monday, 16th March. His training was so thorough that we "heard" him repairing a ¼ ton vehicle by "numbers."

Cpl. O. K. Lovely and L/Cpl. E. G. Phelps, 224 Workshop's two stalwart RCEME Tech Stores types, gave up their "horses" for oversized "cannonballs" on 12 February. They were transferred from RCEME to RCOC. However, the unit loses them on paper only since they will continue working on their old jobs in the workshop.

We see that the RCEME Inspection Teams are in Edmonton once again. Being thorough types, by the time they are through they will have inspected, for serviceability and maintenance, everything from safety pins to bulldozers owned by every unit in the area.

Lt. R. B. Stasiuk in an unguarded moment during a "twisting" performance at the 17 ROD Social Club's Dance held at the PPCLI Lounge on 27 Feb. 1964.

13 Company R.C.A.S.C. News

We have not received a single reply to our Treasure Hunt Contest of last month. Perhaps we made the contest too tough, or perhaps the prizes were not as attractive enough; or was it just that everyone suspected we had our tongue in our cheek when we announced it. We do know that someone tabbed us as the poor man's "Art Evans" as a result of it.

Good news around the company includes the promotion and posting of Sgt. Pearson, our Orderly Room Sergeant and ersiwhile Robin Hood, to Manitoba Area I Staff sometime in June. He is very pleased not only with the promotion, but with the posting as well because Winnipeg has several very fine archery clubs. We understand he has been posting some outstanding scores and hopes to get into some top flight competition before long.

Cpl. Tom Southwood and his rink also rate congratulations for their fine showing in the ACA Bonspiel. While they did not beat the great Hec Gervais they took him down to the last rock and wound up with a record of ten wins and three losses against some of the Prairie Provinces' finest.

More congratulations to 150 Company RCASC(M) in Calgary for finally beating out the local 154 Company in the Area Commonwealth Shield eliminations. Good luck to them in the Western Command and we hope all-Canada finals.

If you see a flock of RCASC Corporals buried in training pamphlets these days, it is because the annual Pre-Senior NCO Assessment tests are just around the corner. Cpl. Ken Coutts has left all this behind him having just returned from the Service Corps school after passing his Senior NCO course. As a bonus for his efforts, he has been transferred to the Central Orderly Room.

St. John's Chapel Women's Auxiliary

On March 7th the W. A. held a Bean Supper in the P.P.C.L.I.
P.T. Building. This was expertly convened by Mrs. Jean Harmer.
The members of the W. A. would like to thank the many people who in various ways helped to make such a success of this event. It is thought that everyone enjoyed it.

Early in the month the W. A. members collected good used clothing and packed 14 large cartons of this and sent it off to St.
Phillips Church at Teslin, Yukon
Territories. It will there be distributed to needy Indians. This is always very much appreciated.

At the regular meeting of St.
John's Chapel W. A. on March 10th Mr. Hendricks and Gail from Hendricks Flower Basket very kindly gave an entertaining talk and demonstration of flower arrangements.

During Lent Mrs. Nell Rude our Devotions Convenor has presented a most interesting series of readings in our service which precedes each business meeting. To many this has been of real help.

Also during Lent two ladies from the W. A. have prepared a welcome breakfast for anyone attending the 7:15 a.m. Holy Communion Service each Wednesday morning.

Altogether March has been a busy month.

The members of the W. A. would like to wish everyone a very Joyous Easter.

A sincere invitation is extended to all residents in the Griesbach Area to attend the regular meetings of St. John's W. A. held at 8:00 p.m. on the second and fourth Tuesdays of each month in the Chapel Conference Room.

Fete Parting Members

Mrs. D. G. Green of Griesbach was hostess to thirty members of the St. John's Chapel Choir at an informal gathering held at her home on the evening of Wednesday, March 4th to bid farewell to four of the choir members.

Guests of honor for the evening were Mrs. Nicholson, of London, England, Mrs. Rita Brown and Mrs. Lorraine Routledge and her daughter Leslie, all of Griesbach.

Mrs. Nicholson has been visiting her daughter, Mrs. Joan Bryant of Griesbach, for the past nine months and has been a very active member of the Choir during her visit. She will be returning to England in early April.

Mrs. Brown, a two year resident of Griesbach, left in mid March to take up residence in Ottawa, Ont., while her husband serves a tour of duty in Indo China.

Mrs. Routledge and her daughter have moved into Edmonton where they will reside on retirement of their husband and father from the Army.

Cpl. Harvey Reti Wins Alberta Golden

Cpl. Harvey Reti, PPCLI Physical Training Instructor, was named Golden Boy in the Alberta Golden Gloves Championships held in Edmonton 13 - 14 Mar., 1964.

Reti was easily the best choice for the Golden Boy Laurels. The PPCLI Cpl. scored a unanimous vote and at 7:00 Alberta Golden Boy and 1964 Montana Golden Boy.

It was Reti's sixth attempt at gaining the Golden Boy title, and this time he made no mistake. Confident and self-assured, Reti set the pace in the opening round. Scoring with a left jab to Pahl's head, Reti continued beating Pahl to punches throughout the bout. The judges scored the bout 50-54, 60-55 and 59-57 for Reti.

This was a big win for Cpl. Reti and there is little doubt he deserved it. He has an impressive list of previous victories, where he won a Bronze Medal in the 1962 British Empire Games in Perth, Australia, for the past three years has held the 139 pound Dominion Championship, and for the past two years, has held the 139 pound 'Open' Canadian Championship.

NATIONAL WILDLIFE WEEK

April 5th - 11th

by Captain W. R. Parker, C.D., President, Western Command

Although one week in the year is set aside as National Wildlife Week, our thoughts and actions concerning our fish and game should be with us all year round. The time is here, start getting the idea over to the rising generation that wealth, economic security and greatness cannot be measured by the extent of gold and silver alone. These are merely media of exchange. The real wealth, in addition to the character, quality and health of our people, is the abundance and variety of our natural resources which include our fish and game.

The proper control and management of our wildlife resources is known as "CONSERVATION". This important word is the motto of the Western Command Fish and Game Association. Whether one is an active hunter or fisherman or simply a camper or lover of the outdoors, it behooves all to devote more attention to conservation.

try race, second in the biathlon and first in the combination of these two events.

The 2 PPCLI team of Lcpl. Embury, Pte. Holopainen and Pte. Plotz came out second in the cross-country event.

Lieut.-Col. R. D. Watson placed fourth in each of the Alpine events and in the combined result to cop first place in the Veteran class.

On the last day of the meet the disappointing news was broken that the Army Championships to be held at Camp Valcartier 9 - 13 March were cancelled because of poor weather and snow conditions. However, Maj. Gen. Rockingham announced, after the presentation of prizes, that that Lieut.-Col. Watson, Cpl. Andersen and Pte. Holopainen were selected as members of the 15-man Western Command Team which would have gone down East.

Pictured above is Major-General Rockingham throwing the first rock to officially open the Western Command Curling Championships. The Championships were held at the Griesbach Curling Rink from 14-20 March. Each Area in Western Command and the NWHS entered two teams in the Championship Round Robin. RSM(WO1) Blades from Manitoba Area, who was last year's winner, competed to gain more laurels.

Griesbach Ladies' Curling

The past two months have kept the members busy at bonspiels. One of the more popular ones, the Lancaster Park Ladies annual Bonspiel was entered by the Bessie King, Corinne Lucas and Jan Dales rinks from Griesbach Ladies Club. Inga Freeman represented the mixed club and the Business Girls Club by Jan Patterson. Fourth prize in the "A" event was won by the King rink and fourth in the "D" event went to Inga Freeman.

Notable on the calendar of events for March was the Ladies Northern. This year Griesbach was represented by Corinne Lucas, Jan Dales, Mary Digweed and Eileen Mills. Corinne skipped the rink and the girls all curled well but didn't quite make the prizes, however as they say, "There is always next year."

Our big event of the year — "The Emerald Bonspiel" held on March 11, 12 and 13, was a roaring success. Each year this Bonspiel gets better, which shows what happens when all co-operate and support the event.

Thirty-two rinks entered from far and wide and were treated on the first day to coffee and doughnuts, much appreciated after a long early morning drive. Doughnuts courtesy E&E Bakery.

The country rinks found our keen ice challenging and were full of praise for the lighting and ice conditions. Thanks to the club staff under the management of Captain Lucas.

The banquet was held on the evening of the 12th and lapably convened by Corinne Lucas and Meg Kearney, the tables tastefully decorated in an Irish motif. Sergeant Major Popp is to be congratulated for his catering, a hundred and forty hungry ladies ate a hot roast beef dinner, including Yorkshire pudding, with no delays in service. The dinner was followed by a short entertainment, this year featuring a fashion show with a difference. The models — Captain's Craig, Digweed, Langley and Lee certainly showed a nice leg, — what these models did for negligees and cocktail dresses, had to be seen to be believed. Many thanks Mimi, Coco, Charmaine and Fifi.

The finals held on Friday night were keenly contested. The Grand Challenge "A" event saw last year's winner Joyce Lothian and Lenore Platten from Jasper Place compete. The Platten rink won the trophy which was presented by our club president Bessie King. The remaining prizes were presented by various club supporters. The winners were as follows — "A" event — 2nd prize J. Lothian, Lancaster Park; 3rd Eileen Mills, Griesbach; 4th Clarke, Lancaster Park; "B" event — winners, 1st prize Mary Flynne, St. Albert; 2nd Jan Patterson, Griesbach Business Girls; 3rd F. Singer, Spruce Grove; 4th Corinne Lucas, Griesbach Ladies' Club; "C" event — winners, 1st prize Win Lee, Griesbach Ladies' Club; 2nd Jan Dales, Griesbach Ladies' Club; 3rd Vi Samis, Lancaster Park; 4th I. Nylen, Jasper Place; "D" event — winners, 1st prize, A. Friis, Lancaster Park; 2nd E. Gunther Ardrossen, 3rd O. Bruens, Griesbach Business Girls; 4th A. Czdzier, Lancaster Park. The prizes all received with great pleasure were the responsibility of Win Lee.

The raffle, the most successful we have had to date, was run by Nan Allen and won by Pam Van Aggelan, the prize a set of Corning Ware. The raffle as well as the door prize and floral centerpiece from the head table were drawn for at the banquet. Nelda Hodgkinson won the door prize and Toots Bolles the centerpiece. These last two prizes donated by Gladys Florists and Hendricks Florists.

A great deal of thanks is owed to many for their help in this Bonspiel, particularly to Captain Digweed for his help on programs, to Jeanne Mandzuk for her many hours of typing. To Mr. Arn Cowan for filling in at the 11th hour as pianist, to all those businesses and firms who gave generously, to Jess Carlyle-Gell for the neatness of the "comfort station".

Warriors Top Midget League

The Midget League Hockey Trophy is presented to James Dales, Team Captain and Coach Sgt. E. Simpson of the Warriors, league champions by Major R. R. Buckley, Chairman of the Griesbach Community Association. Sgt. T. E. Hidsen, Vice President of the Griesbach Boys Hockey League looks on.

ALBERTA SIGNAL SQUADRON

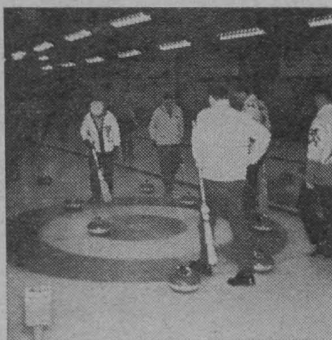

The forthcoming withdrawal of the Troop of Alberta Signal Squadron from Whitehorse will bring to an end, over forty years of communication service by the Royal Canadian Corps of Signals in the Yukon. Since the late summer of 1923, when the first detachment passed through Whitehorse on the way north to open up radio stations in Dawson and Mayo, RC Sigs personnel have been providing communications for the development of the Yukon.

The radio network, started by the opening of Dawson and Mayo in 1923, expanded rapidly into a vast radio system extending north from Edmonton and including all the main communities of the McKenzie River District of the North West Territories. In the Yukon, Whitehorse was added to the network and eventually connected to Edmonton by a landline teletype circuit.

The part played by the Signal Corps in the development of the Yukon is little realized. The radio stations preceded the aircraft service and until approximately 1942, remained the only radio contact for any aircraft flying into the Yukon. The majority of the commercial telegraph business and, in particular, the great volume of traffic associated with the early planning and construction of the Alaska Highway, was handled by RC Sigs radio stations. Mining communities, river boats, trading posts and survey parties all relied upon radio contact with a "Signals" station for emergencies and day to day business.

As the Yukon developed and expanded further, the many services provided by the "Signals" were gradually turned over to agencies with the prime responsibility for the service. The Canadian National Telegraphs took over the commercial telegraph service and the Department of Transport the weather reporting and ground to air communications. In recent years the only remaining role of the Signal Corps has been to provide communications for those army elements responsible for the maintenance of the Alaska Highway. It is this last role that is now vanishing. With its passing will end the Signal Corps participation in what was described forty years before, at the inauguration of the Dawson to Mayo radio link, as "The commencement of a great development."

Strategy being planned by Skip Jimmy Grimstead (head down) as Lieut.-Col. Hunter, Mr. Storey, Cpl. Melanson and Lcpl. Robertson look on. It happened at a crucial moment during the 17 ROD Annual Curling Bonspiel held on 28 Feb. 1964.

2 P.P.C.L.I. Report

Since the last edition of the Bugle went to press, A Coy. has returned from their trip to Alaska. During the month they were in Alaska, they participated in exercise "Polar Seige" with elements of the United States Army. From all reports A Coy. made an excellent showing on this exercise.

After A Coy's return the unit prepared for exercise "Caribou Trail". This exercise was a Brigade exercise held in Wainwright from 8 to 13 March. 2 PPCLI acted as the enemy force.

The Anniversary of the Birthday of Lady Patricia Ramsay, Colonel-in-Chief of the Regiment was celebrated on the 17th of March. A Home Station parade was held, followed by a costume parade. Depot was judged the best entry. A sports day followed with the following winners:

Snow shoe Tug of war — Depot No. 1 Team.

Push Ball — Depot.

Sled Race — Sp. Coy.

Broom-a-loo — Sp. Coy.

In addition, the annual Sergeants vs Officers Broom-a-loo game was played. Despite the superior number of Sergeants, the Officers were victorious.

During the day the PPCLI Sky Diving Club put on an excellent display of free fall parachuting. We understand this is the first time anyone has entered 10 SDB from above.

The battalion will hold a Bingo on the 1st of May. More details later, but don't forget to keep that date open.

LEAVE

Cpl. G. B. C. Neil on balance of annual leave departed for Vancouver and points in USA.

SPECIAL NOTICES

Hearty congratulations to Cpl. H. N. Reti on winning the Alberta Golden Gloves. Cpl. Reti defeated Milt Pahl after 3 rounds on a decision at the Edmonton Gardens 14 March, 1964.

Congratulations are also in order to Cpl. R. H. Andersen who placed first in the Downhill, Giant Slalom and combined Alpine and second in the Slalom event of the Western Command Ski Meet at Banff.

On our Colonel-in-Chief's Birthday, 17 March, 1964, PPCLI Depot not only won the best float in the parade and the Snow Shoe tug-o-war awards, but one week old Flers Courcellette platoon won the Push ball trophy. Who was our opposition? Why those tired old 2nd Battalion veterans.

Being another letter from Myrt
(a clued-up character) to her former neighbour.

Dear Kit:

I don't suppose I ever told you, but Georgie came charging home for lunch one day, ranting something about "Don't sell the steak — sell the sizzle." As near as I could make out, he had been to some kind of a lecture on money management at the camp theatre.

"What does it mean?" I asked Georgie, figuring that my ever-loving rusbando must have smuggled a mickey into the lecture.

"Well, Myrt, it's like this," he opens up. "You can buy a whole steak for a buck but if you let someone sell it to you in a posh restaurant with all the trimmings (what they call the sizzle) it's liable to cost you $5 bucks, at least."

Then he went on to explain that this is how a lot of things are sold today — vacuum cleaners, encyclopedias, cookware sets, and even athletic supporters (by which I presume he means the people who buy tickets for hockey games).

I must admit I didn't listen too closely. My mind kept harking back to the last time he had bought me a steak. It was in that greasy spoon near the bus station in town. I didn't see any sizzle — and all I could smell was the garbage. Anyway, I missed the whole point of Georgie's great discovery about the steak and the sizzle... THAT IS... UNTIL LAST WEEK.

You remember Helen Cabel? Well, I got me an invite to her house for some kind of a sherry party. When we arrived (that is, Helen's contacts from the Ladies Auxiliary) we found there was to be an added attraction... some flunky representing an outfit called "Health and Home Sanitizers, Inc."

Oh well, a party is party, so first off we get into the grape — particularly when we learn that the whole shindig is being thrown with the compliments of "The President of good old H and HS Inc." In fact, several of us got quite sloshed! You know what this wine will do to you on a light lunch.

After an hour or so (during which a certain Marie did a priceless imitation of her husband doing 5 BX) we realize that the MOMENT OF TRUTH has arrived. Mr. Foney-Baloney from H and HS clears his throat and asks for a few moments of our "precious time". (Ye gods I think, what have we got to do to make our time so precious). Anyway, high-pressure Pete goes into his act (I can just visualize him staying up at night learning this "canned" approach from some phonograph record".

Next he trots out the equipment. It looks to me like a vacuum cleaner on which some nut went wild with a blow torch. It's got attachments welded all over it... more nozzles, tubes and gadgets than a guided missile!

Our pal from the H and HS is dead serious — but by this time most of the girls are pretty well looped and things are reaching the hilarious stage. Our hero is sprinkling tea leaves, sand, talcum powder (and something else he got from a farmer's barn) all over little old what's-her-name's, on her furniture, carpet, drapes, just E-V-E-R-Y-W-H-E-R-E!

"Fear not ladies", he entones. Then our matine idol gives us a big line of waffle about how this machine makes your rugs last twice as long because it "gentles" the dirt out, and how it provides every suburban housewife (is that supposed to be us?) with a built-in-maid-of-all-work. You know the line Kit... no modern homemaker can afford to be without one. And of course it kills germs, restores natural beauty to fabrics — and the motor is fitted with a "luller" which eliminates the annoying whine of most ordinary household cleaning equipment.

When the demonstration is over, our bird-brain starts the embarrassment pitch. These hucksters always seem to work the same way. They pick on a "pigeon" — one of the wives who appears to be a little weak on sales resistance — and then they concentrate on her. You know the line, Kit. "How do you clean up your house madam?" He had selected little Marge Baker / and he had her good and flustered in about a minute and a half. "Holy Baldy" I thought... She's going to buy one of these things if we're not careful. I thought it was about time to break up the show:

"Hold on Buster... this magnificent piece of junk is what my grandmother would have called a vacuum cleaner. I'll spell it for you dornball — v-a-c-u-u-m c-l-e-a-n-e-r. You can disguise it in a hundred ways. You can add 15 different nozzles, most of which the average housewife will never use. You can call it a sanitizer...

a dirt eliminator or what you will, my young friend, but it is, and I repeat, a vacuum cleaner! By the way, what's the price, with all the fittings, detachments, and doodads."

I think for a minute our "Home Cleaning and Sanitary Consultant" was about to give us some fast talk... funny how these guys never like to mention price... but he thought better of it.

"Come on, sunny boy, what's the total price."

He emerged from his state of shock long enough to gasp — $267.50. This started to look like a deal where we had about $60. worth of steak (I mean, vacuum cleaner) and about $200. worth of sizzle.

"You want to know something, Buddy — I had to buy a new vacuum cleaner last year. I went through my catalogue and found a standard well-known brand name for $62. I didn't stop there. I got on telephone, quoted the name and model number and got a price from six other stores. The final price I paid — $56.50."

Our lulu from the H and HS Co. still managed to smile. Obviously he had a clincher up his sleeve and he was about to unload it.

"But madam," he says to me with great disdain, "No mere vacuum cleaner can purify the air and destroy household germs as it cleans."

"So who's got germs?" I say, winking at the assembled ladies. He realizes he's gone a little too far.

"Ya", Helen pipes in, "are you trying to say I never clean up the joint!"

"And as for purifying the air, chum," I add, "I can buy a 69c spray can that fixes all that."

As our hot shot was packing his gear he looked like death warmed over. A sadder guy I never saw. Suddenly he brightened up. Out of Helen's side window he could see the parade square and a few Army buildings. "Say", he shouted with enthusiasm, "How does a guy go about joining the Army?"

Well Kit it was a great afternoon. Will write again soon.

Yours,
Myrt.

SCOUTS

Robert Vallance having both eyes open was presented with the Leaping Wolf badge by Cub Master Haswell and invested into A troop 1st Griesbach. Artist Badges were awarded to Lawrence Falconer, Ricky Miller, Bill Bourdreau, and Dan Kearney. G. E. Minks has taken over A Troop 1st Kriesbach as Scoutmaster and the former scoutmaster has remained as the Assistant Scoutmaster.

Since last publication, Iroquois Troop has been very active with tribal performances and camping trips.

The Troop and Pack performed tribal council-fire ceremonies at the Annual Cub and Scout Concert held at the Drill Hall, on 19 December, 1963. On 8 February 1964, The combined Troop and Pack visited the Macdonald Hotel at the request of the National Executive Council of the Boy Scouts of Canada. Here they again performed the rite of the council-fire.

At Christmas the troop went on a very successful camp at the Earnest Poole Scout Camp at Lake Wabamun. Another is planned for the Easter Holidays. Several other weekends were spent at the Sturgeon River Camp.

The Troop are busily engaged in First Aid and Morse Code courses for all their members.

A number of scouts qualified and were present with their badges, they are:

Definition of a Cub

Once a male baby has grown out of dresses and triangle and has acquired pants, freckles and so much dirt that visiting Aunts do not dare to kiss in between meals, it becomes a Cub.

A Cub is nature's answer to that false belief that there is no such thing as perpetual motion. A Cub can swim like a fish, run like a deer, climb like a squirrel, balk like a mule, eat like a pig or act like a jackass, according to climatic conditions.

He is a piece of skin stretched over an appetite, a noise covered with smudges. He is Mother's little helper, Dad's boy, Sister's hair puller, Akela's necessary headache.

Cub's faithfully imitate their Dads in spite of all efforts to teach them good manners. A Cub, if not washed too often and if kept in a cool quite place after each accident, will survive broke bones, hornets, swimming holes, fights, nine helpings of pie and three energetic cub leaders.

At camp a Cub is never homesick, though he sometimes suffers from "Heresickness". All day he keeps the Leaders and the cook busy. For lunch, after a busy morning of games and swimming, he will settle for three helpings of beef stew, and holler, "Gee, that was good, when do we eat?"

At night he sleeps like a rock — unless of course, there are Martians outside his tent or inside his sleeping bag.

A new Chum will joyfully announce to his parents that he will be investigated at the next pack meeting, or when transferred to a new Pack will write that his new Akela is "only a woman".

If asked to empty his pockets at inspection, he will produce: a key, five pennies, three stamps, his lost woggle, two love notes to the girl next door, bubble gum wrappers, one fire cracker without a wick, last week's good turn, and a gracefully folded handkerchief (which he seldom uses).

A Cub can break a flag, break a window or "break" his cubmaster with equal ease.

Every Cub invested is evidence that there are still countless wonderfully patient enterprising men (known as Old Wolves) who keep trying to co-ordinate and control these young bundles of vitality.

Every boy born is a potential Cub, and, as such, concrete evidence that God is not yet discouraged of Man.

A Cub is a growing animal of superlative promise, to be fed, watered, and kept warm. A joy forever, a periodic nuisance, the problem of our times, the hope of the Nation.

CANADIANS FAMILIAR IN CONGO

LULUABOURG, The Congo — Probably among the best-known residents of the city of Luluabourg in The Congo are a group of Canadian soldiers charged with maintaining communications between United Nations Headquarters in Leopoldville and the XXII Swedish Grenadier Guards Battalion who patrol the Luluabourg area.

If he chose to run for the office of mayor, Captain Robert Theakston, of Halifax, would probably win in a landslide. The 29-year-old officer of the 8th Canadian Hussars (Princess Louise's) is greeted on every hand as he walks around the city carrying out his duties as commander of the Canadian signal detachment.

The greetings range from 'Moya' in the Tshiluba language of the native Lulua tribe, to 'Bonjour' from many of the Belgian residents of the city.

Luluabourg is the capital city of the province of Luluabourg, which is sandwiched between Katanga province to the south and Equateur and Orientale provinces to the north.

Sgt. Kenneth Glass, of Winnipeg, second in-command of the detachment, has also gained a reputation for diplomacy among the city's citizens.

Four of the nine-man detachment serve as radio-teletype operators — Corporal Roger Thomas, of Quebec City, held the Croix de Guerre, won during service with the French resistance movement during the Second World War; Signalman Joe Tremblay, of Port Alfred, Que., Signalman James Mackie, of Hamilton, Ont., and Signalman William Crompton, of Montreal.

Other members of the detachment have additional duties besides operating the communications equipment. Corporal Bob Hyland, of Toronto, supervises the rations and regularly visits the native market to buy fresh fruit and vegetables. Signalman Gary Benedict, of Blind River, Ont., is the unit radio mechanic, and Corporal Bob Leckie, of Dodsland, Sask., is the technician responsible for the repair and maintenance of the teletype equipment.

U.N.E.F.

Major P. J. Werth of Regina, has been appointed to command the Canadian Army Service Corps unit with the United Nations Emergency Force in Egypt.

Born in Grenfell, Sask., Major Werth received his education in Regina and has served continuously with the Canadian Army since 1937.

After service overseas and in Canada during the Second World War, Major Werth worked with the United Nations in New York in 1947 and later with the United Nations Observer Group in Lebanon in 1958.

He has been Deputy Assistant Quartermaster General at Headquarters, Alberta Area in Edmonton, since 1959. Major Werth will go to Egypt later this month.

WITHDRAW USAF UNIT

The Canadian and United States Governments have agreed to the withdrawal of United States Air Force refuelling aircraft from the RCAF base at Namao, near Edmonton, Alta.

Namao is the last of four Strategic Air Command refuelling bases located in Canada under a joint Canadian-United States agreement signed in June, 1958.

USAF refuelling facilities at Frobisher Bay, N.W.T., and Churchill, Man., were phased out in July, 1963. Strategic Air Command tankers at RCAF Station Cold Lake, Alta., were relocated at Namao following a fire at Cold Lake, in April, 1963, which destroyed the industrial building supporting the refuelling operations.

Development of the longer range KC-135 jet tanker and the phase out of the older propeller type KC-97 tanker aircraft from the USAF has made further refuelling operation in Canada unnecessary.

SAC aircraft will be withdrawn from Namao by July this year and USAF personnel and equipment will be phased out during the Summer.

U.S. President Commends Canadians

President Lyndon B. Johnson of the United States has personally commended 13 officers and non-commissioned officers of the United Nations Congo Force, including three Canadians, for their action in evacuating rebel-threatened foreigners in Kwilu Province.

The Canadians are Brigadier Jacques A. Dextraze, DSO, OBE, CD; Lieutenant-Colonel Paul A. Mayer, MBE, CD; and Sergeant Joseph A. Lessard.

In a letter to Secretary-General U Thant, made public here,

Johnson said he had been told the UN personnel who carried out the rescue operations had worked under "exceptionally difficult and dangerous circumstances".

He asked Thant to "convey my warm personal greetings as well as the highest appreciation of my government to all those responsible for the operations."

President Johnson also commended "the extraordinary courage, perseverance and devotion to duty" shown by the 13 individual members of the UN force.

Name New Army Provost Marshall

Lieutenant-Colonel Andrew R. Ritchie, CD, of Kindersly, Sask., will be promoted to the rank of colonel and appointed Provost Marshal for the Canadian Army in late May.

The 50-year-old Canadian Provost Corps officer is now serving with military component of the Canadian delegation in Viet Nam.

He will be succeeded by Lieutenant-Colonel R. W. Potts, DSO, CD, 42, of Saskatoon, now serving as general staff officer, 1st grade and deputy director with the directorate of survival operations and plans at Army Headquarters.

Col. Ritchie served in Britain and Northwest Europe during the Second World War. On his return to Canada in 1946 he served in Provost Corps appointments at Camp Borden, Oakville, and Ottawa, then commanded No. 25 Provost detachment in Korea.

He was appointed chief instructor at the Canadian Provost Corps School at Camp Shilo, Man., in 1953 and commandant in 1955. He served as deputy provost marshal at Army Headquarters before going to Viet Nam.

Lieut.-Col. Potts served with the Princess Patricia's Canadian Light Infantry in Italy and Northwest Europe during the Second World War. Transferring to the Royal Canadian Engineers after the war he served in various MCE appointments across Canada before being appointed deputy assistant adjutant general (Manning) at Headquarters Eastern Command in Halifax in 1957.

He served with the directorate of works at Army Headquarters before assuming his present appointment.

LOCAL C.D.'s

Three Edmonton soldiers have been awarded the Canadian Forces Decoration.

They are: Capt. C. B. Snider, MC, Princess Patricia's Canadian Light Infantry; Sergeant K. M. Gordon, Royal Canadian Corps of Signals and Sgt. K. R. Shappee, Royal Canadian Dental Corps.

Awarded the first clasp to the decoration was Lieutenant-Colonel C. J. A. Hamilton, MBE, CD, Princess Patricia's Canadian Light Infantry.

The decoration is awarded on completion of 12 years exemplary service in the Canadian Armed Forces and the first clasp after 22 years.

2nd Year Champs

A team of marksmen from the 2nd Battalion, The Royal Canadian Regiment, stationed at London, Ont., will journey to Buckingham Palace in London, England, where it will be presented with the Duke of Edinburgh Trophy by His Royal Highness, The Prince Philip, Duke of Edinburgh.

Winners of the trophy for the second consecutive year, the RCR team captured top honors over 23 other units from Commonwealth armies. These include five units of the famed Royal Marine Commandos and two battalions of the 7th Duke of Edinburgh's Own Gurkha Rifles.

Dutch City Honors Canadian Units

In appreciation of the liberation of their city by the Canadian Army during the Second World War, the grateful citizens of the Dutch city of Woensdrecht — about fifteen miles west of Antwerp, Belgium — have decided to name four of the city's streets after Canadian regiments.

The four units honored are the Fort Garry Horse, The Toronto Scottish Regiment, The Queen's Own Cameron Highlander of Canada and Royal Hamilton Light Infantry.

In addition the Burgomaster of Woensdrecht has presented each unit with the Medal of Woensdrecht on behalf of the citizens of the city. All four units have the name emblazoned on their colors as battle honors.

They figured greatly in the victory won by Allied forces in the Scheldt in southwestern Holland during the fall of 1944. Some of the bitterest fighting of the Second World War occurred on the flooded fields surrounding the isthmus west of Woensdrecht and in the city itself, before its capture by soldiers of the Royal Hamilton Light Infantry on October 16, 1944.

Of the four units only the Fort Garry Horse is now serving with the Canadian Army Regular. It is the armored component of Canada NATO Brigade in Germany.

OTTAWA — The RCAF's 408 Photo Reconnaissance Squadron, now based at Station Rockcliffe, near Ottawa, will not move to Station Uplands as previously anticipated. The move of 408 Squadron will be the Canadian Joint Air Training Centre at Rivers, Manitoba, the Air Force announced today.

The Air Training Centre at Rivers is a tri-service base and the move of 408 Squadron will enable it to operate in closer cooperation with the Canadian Army.

Besides being charged with reconnaissance operations in the Arctic and aerial photography as required by the Department of National Defence, 408 Squadron is also responsible for providing aerial reconnaissance for Army operations and training.

The move to Rivers, involving about 150 officers and men, is effective on April 1, 1964.

NEW "DRONE" FOR ARMY

A pilotless reconnaissance aircraft, or drone, known as the CL89, under development for the Canadian and British Armies, is flight-tested in Yuma, Ariz. Used to gather battlefield intelligence, it will complement present reconnaissance aircraft by its ability to present information more rapidly and to operate under conditions where manned flight is hazardous or impossible.

16 NEW HERCULES FOR ARMY

A decision has been reached to purchase 16 C-130 "E" Hercules long-range transport planes for the RCAF. Delivery will commence late this year and is expected to be completed by the fall of 1965. The "E" is the advanced version of the Hercules. The overall program cost, including spares, ground handling equipment and other support items is estimated at $55 million Canadian funds.

Since the Canadian requirement for this aircraft is not sufficiently large to permit economic production in Canada, they will be procured by the Department of Defence Production from the Georgia Division of the Lockheed Aircraft Corporation through the U.S. Department of Defence. Suitable arrangements will be worked out within the framework of the Canada/United States Production Sharing Program, whereby this and other Canadian procurements falling in this category will be offset by United States defence purchases in Canada.

airlift 28 fully-equipped paratroops or two jeeps a distance of 200 miles and return to base. Using less than 500 feet of rough terrain for a runway, the aircraft can land, discharge cargo, take on a full load and take off again in a very short time.

Ottawa Credit Union Establishes Growth Record

OTTAWA — The Defence Headquarters Credit Union has passed the one million dollar mark, Wing Commander V. C. Stevens, a member of the Board of Directors announced today. The million dollar asset figure establishes a new growth record for credit unions, he added.

The Defence Headquarters Credit Union assets reached one million dollars in 21 months, to topple a record set by another military credit union at RCAF Station Cold Lake, Alta., in 1961.

The assets of Cold Lake branch grew to one million dollars in 23 months and now total more than $2,000,000. Since its inception, it has made personal loans of more than $5,000,000 to its 3,000 members. The Defence Headquarters branch now has 1,700 members.

Both of these agencies are part of a network of 24 military credit unions at RCOF units throughout Canada, with total assets amounting to more than $10,000,000.

"These 'self-help', semi-banking institutions encourage personnel throughout the RCAF to save money while borrowing at the lowest possible interest rate," said Wing Commander Stevens, "with the result that there has been a general lifting of the standard living where ever they have been formed."

MORE CARIBOU FOR SUPPORT

Four additional Canadian-made Caribou transport aircraft are being purchased from DeHavilland of Canada Ltd., for the RCAF. This will bring the total of these efficient, short take-off-and-landing aircraft in the RCAF to nine.

Ideally suited to U.N. peace-keeping operations, the RCAF's original Caribou aircraft are part of Canada's U.N. contribution along the Gaza strip and in Yemen. This new order will expand the RCAF's capability in the medium transport and Army support roles.

In addition to its use by the RCAF, the Caribou is now flying with the United States Army, the air forces of Ghana, India, Australia, Kuwait, Sweden and the Civil Air Transport in Formosa.

The Caribou I entered service with the RCAF in 1960 when these twin-engine, high-wing transports started operations with 115 Air Transport Unit at El Arish as part of the U.N. Emergency Force in the Middle East.

The Caribou has a three-ton plus carrying capacity and can

GOLDEN ANNIVERSARY

Military pageants are planned for the period Sept. 23 to Oct. 23 in Ottawa, St. Jean, Que., Montreal and Quebec City. In addition there will be special cenotaph ceremonies at various locations, gala concerts, civic and social receptions, unveilings of several monuments and dedication of memorial buildings.

Special features of the golden jubilee year include publication of the second volume of the regimental history and a pilgrimage to European battlefields.

Final event will be a mass parade of Regular and Militia battalions on the Plains of Abraham at Quebec City.

Senior members of the golden jubilee committee are: Maj.-Gen. J. Paul E. Bernatchez, Ottawa; Col. Henri Tellier, Ottawa; Col. J. L. G. Poulin, Montreal; Col. Armand Ross, St. Jean and Lieut.-Col. Jean Closson, Quebec City.

CANADA TO CYPRUS — AIRLIFT

Flying the equivalent of about 13 trips around the world, the RCAF's Air Transport Command has completed the movement of Canadian troops and equipment from Canada to strife-torn Cyprus in support of the United Nations Emergency Force. The airlift was carried out using seven Yukon aircraft and four Hercules, and involved a total of 30 round trips between Canada and Cyprus. Carrying more than 1,000 troops and support equipment the aircraft were staged through Marville, France, and Athens, Greece, before their arrival in Cyprus. The shorter range Hercules made an additional refuelling stop at Goose Bay, Lab., before crossing the Atlantic ocean to Marville. Average flying time for the 5,500 mile trip was about 15 hours. Besides carrying trailers, jeeps and trucks, the Hercules aircraft also airlifted more than 100 tons of stores, a large part of which was spare parts for the vehicles.

EXERCISE BRIGADE UNITS

EDMONTON — The Largest Army exercise of the winter in Western Canada took place last month at Camp Wainwright, Alta.

More than 1000 soldiers engaged in a week-long field operation on the 240-square-mile training area 120 miles east of Edmonton.

Exercise "Caribou Trail" was under the direction of Brig. Bruce Macdonald, commander of the 1st Canadian Infantry Brigade Group with Headquarters in Calgary.

Designed to test the operational efficiency of Brigade troops living and working in the field under winter conditions, the exercise marked the culmination of months of winter training and conditioning on the field for the first time since last summer's training concentration in the same area.

Brigade units participating included Edmonton's 2nd Battalion, Princess Patricia's Canadian Light Infantry, Calgary's 2nd Battalion, Queen's Own Rifles of Canada and the Lord Strathcona's Horse (Royal Canadians); elements of Winnipeg's 3rd Regiment, Royal Canadian Horse Artillery and aircraft from Shilo's Air Observation Post Troop as well as supporting signals, engineer and medical units from British Columbia and Alberta.

The exercise was carried out in two phases beginning Sunday, March 8th. A parachute assault by airborne troops from Edmonton's 2nd Patricia's tested a "friendly" force composed of Calgary's Queen's Own and Strathcona's in guerilla operations in isolated areas under winter conditions.

During the second phase of the exercise the airborne troops withdrew into a defensive role and the friendly force was committed to an advance to contact operation culminating in a battalion attack on the enemy-held position.

Famous Canadian Army Badges

LORD STRATHCONA'S HORSE
(Royal Canadians)

The badge of the Lord Strathcona's Horse (Royal Canadians), an armoured regiment, honors its founder Sir Donald Alexander Smith who raised and outfitted the unit for service in South Africa.

Included in his Coat-of-Arms are a crossed hammer and railroad spike indicative of his part in the construction of the CPR. The canoe bearing four men and flying a flag inscribed "NW" is for his service with the Hudson's Bay Company.

Today the "Lord Straths" have their home station at Sarcee Barracks, Calgary, Alta.

Completes R.C.A.F. Survival Course

RCAF STATION NAMAQ, Alta. — Sergeant W. F. Bolen, 32, son of Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Bolen of Kaleden, B.C., has graduated from the winter bush course of the RCAF's Survival Training School here.

Sgt. Bolen, a member of the 2 PPCLI serving in Edmonton, joined the Canadian Army in January, 1951.

The Survival Training School teaches military and civilian personnel who in emergency may "need to know" the techniques of survival in uninhabited and isolated areas. Its classroom is the "great outdoors" at Jarvis Lake, Alta., where training in the bush is given under both summer and winter conditions, and at Resolute Bay on Cornwallis Island, N.W.T., where arctic survival is taught.
